

BIOPORT

Bioport is a non-profit organisation under the law of 1901 which has been bringing logistical support to solidarity entities since 1994: NGOs, Foundations, humanitarian associations, local solidarity associations, local authorities, schools or universities for the benefit of populations in situations of difficulty, distress, or poverty.

The membership to Bioport enables you to access our services, to be informed of our evolution and even to take part in the orientation of the activities and development of the services offered.

Membership applications are reviewed and approved during quarterly board meetings.
